JANUARY 2015 GENERAL MEETING

The Many Stories of ROSIE the RIVETER
with Ranger Raphael Allen

TUESDAY,
JANUARY 20

- What questions did the "War Jobs For Women" Program of WWII raise about 'the place of women' in society?
- How would our own elders have chosen to respond to all the wartime propaganda messages?
- How did women who were already in the paid workforce feel about the housewives who signed up just to 'bring the boys home'?
- What do we see now when we regard these many women side by side?

These topics and more will be presented next month. Come prepared to share your own family's war stories.

PLEASE NOTE:

There is no regularly scheduled General Meeting in December. The Holiday Get-Togethers are planned with all of you in mind, however. Plan to attend one or both! Bring a friend, too! ★

All meetings of the OML Branch, unless otherwise noted, are held at the HOLY TRINITY SERBIAN CHURCH CULTURAL CENTER
1700 School St., Moraga

PIPINGS from the PRESIDENTFa La La La La and Greetings to you all!

Thank you to Jan Cushman and to Alison Mackenzie for a fabulous program on "Smart Giving" featuring Maureen Richardson, a financial planner, at our November General meeting.

December brings two social gatherings: a Coffee on Friday, December 5th at Diane Bell-Rettger's home from 10-noon and a late afternoon get-together on Wednesday, December 10th at Indigo & Poppy in Lafayette from 4-6 pm. Please find further details in this Triad. Please note, we will be collecting childrens' book to be donated to the Burckhalter Elementary School in Oakland at the December 5th Coffee.

Final details are being ironed out for our 2015 Winter and Spring General meeting programs. From the notes I have received thus far they all sound exciting and very worthwhile. Stay tuned.

The Scholarship Committee has asked us to Save the Date of February 12th for their annual Valentine Party, from 1-3:30 pm. Details to follow. I highly recommend this party...champagne and chocolate...need I say more!?

Board Meeting Highlights ~ November

The financial report shows that we've surpassed our budget goal of $3500 in dues. That translates to 146 members to date. If you haven't renewed yet, don't wait a minute longer!

Stacia Cragholm reported that our Tech Trek committee is working on a one day Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math – "STEM" program for middle school girls and their parents. Their goal is to involve between 100 and 200 girls in 6th through 8th grades. The target date is spring 2016.

Mary Ann McLeod announced that Scholarship brought in $3,200 with its very successful Princeton Review Assessment program held in October. Congratulations! Also, stay tuned for information on their second annual Valentines Day party coming up in February.

Sister to Sister's Mentoring Program for Girls will be held at the Orinda Community Church in January, February, and March. Laura Wittenberg reported that there are 25 high school facilitators and asked for members' help to recruit middle school girls.

The board passed several motions to disperse unallocated funds held by the Community Outreach Fund, Inc. A one-time transfer of $250 was made to the Sister to Sister program. The remaining $500, which was brought in a couple of years ago from the screening of the movie, Miss Representation, was split equally among our five priorities: Tech Trek, Scholarship, Sister to Sister, Burckhalter, and Start Smart.

MEMBERSHIP MEMOS

NEW MEMBERS COFFEE

A coffee for new members was hosted by Bonnie Gallogly in early November. A new members' coffee provides an opportunity for persons new to OML to meet with current members (including some board members) to gain further information about AAUW, to ask questions, to get to know each other in an informal small group setting. The event took place in Bonnie's lovely home high in the Orinda hills, and was much appreciated by all those who attended. Thanks to Bonnie for an event well planned and executed.

MEMBERSHIP CAN BECOME FRIENDSHIP

As members interact with other members, helping to advance branch priorities, or exploring personal interests, you will discover like-minded individuals whose acquaintance you will come to know and appreciate. What a rewarding experience! The OML branch offers a wide array of interest groups and study opportunities. While participating in enjoyable activities, you will also further the mission of AAUW to promote equity for women, a reward in itself.

Give Smart!

Did you know that the Federal Tax Code is written to enable giving and reward those of us who make charitable donations? Maureen Richardson, Certified Financial Planner™, shared some tips on how to take advantage of the numerous ways to reduce your taxes and enjoy the satisfaction of supporting your favorite charities - including AAUW Funds!

The strategies range from giving a direct gift (tax deductible, of course) to a charitable bequest at death to more complicated strategies. Depending on your personal situation, you may want to use a donor-advised fund to contribute stocks and receive an immediate tax deduction and reduce your capital gains. Or use a wealth replacement trust that pairs a substantial donation with a life insurance policy that benefits your heirs. In some cases you may want to consider a tax-exempt charitable remainder trust that can generate income interest for your lifetime followed by passing on the remainder interest to a qualified charity or family foundation. See your financial planner and your tax attorney for details!!

Here are several websites that you may want to explore:

* www.charitynavigator.org or www.guidestar.org - These sites evaluate and rate hundreds of 501c3 charities.

* www.charitabletrust.com - The firm behind this website partners with donors and financial planners to create a variety of sophisticated individual charitable plans.

* www.dmachoise.org - Developed by the Direct Marketing Association to help you start or stop receiving mail from a specific company or a category (donation requests, credit offers, catalogs, etc.).

To donate to AAUW Funds, make your check out to "AAUW funds", with the fund number or name of the specific fund in the memo line. Send your check to Ruth Balsdon, 202 Paseo Bernal, Moraga, CA 94556.

SISTER-to-SISTER

S2S: Nurturing Healthy Relationships

Every Sister-to-Sister training has two parts: a one-hour leadership meeting, which includes only experienced facilitators, followed by the three-hour skills and issues training for all girls. The leadership group makes decisions, sets the direction for the training, and assigns roles to assist in leading the training that follows.

With the change in format from one day – the Summit – to three two-hour sessions beginning in January, there were many decisions to be made concerning what elements to keep and what parts to let go. In a brainstorming session, the girls reconfirmed their goal of empowering all participants and discussed ways of achieving it. The new format will provide the opportunity to make deeper connections with their “little sisters,” expand on topics and have richer and more meaningful discussions. In between meetings, things will settle, allowing thoughts and ideas to percolate. New things will come up to be talked about. There will be opportunities to apply learning and share insights and as well as time for self-reflection.

To prepare them for the important topic of dating abuse, S2S leaders invited Bryanna Rivera of STAND for Families Free of Violence to present. Girls listened with rapt attention as she shared that one in three teens will experience violence from a significant other, even in an exclusively online relationship where they have never met face-to-face. Abuse happens in all sorts of teen relationships, but few tell anyone, even their best friend. Some suspect that the one-in-three statistic is more likely to be higher. She talked about a three-phase cycle of violence: tension building, an abusive incident, and a honeymoon period, which is characterized by the batterer being apologetic and promising change.

Through listening to the talk, one of the facilitators discovered that the behavior she was experiencing in a relationship was abusive. She knew she was unhappy and finally had the words and context to understand what was happening to her.

S2S is living up to its mission empowering girls to take care of themselves. Knowledge is power.

ROADS of ARABIA Archaeology and History of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

This show will give us an exciting look at some of the archeological treasures that exist in the Arabian Peninsula, spanning years from the Paleolithic times to 1932 — the birth of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. It presents 120 ancient artifacts of cultural exchange, many of which have been excavated in recent years. We will see how the interchange of ideas through trade influences civilization and how Saudi Arabia became a bridge between East and West, from 4 million BCE to the present.

You will not want to miss this trip!

We'll take BART from Lafayette at 8:40 am, passing through the Orinda station at 8:45 am. General admission is $15; seniors are $10. Contact Maryellen if you are interested in carpooling and plan to be at Lafayette Orinda Presbyterian Church ready to LEAVE for BART by 8:15 a.m.
