... PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

March has been a very busy month for me!

The Distinguished Woman selection committee of Peggy Cabaniss, Sheila Apte, Therese Tamaro and Diane Bell, along with me, reviewed a total of 26 nominations from 2017 through 2022. There were great candidates and it took some discussion to select the winner, Stacia Cragholm. We will be busy preparing her memory book and her tray in the coming month. We will celebrate her and she will share her story with us at the May luncheon.

Getting this year's Tech Trek nominations and applications sorted out also has been a task. The decision to hold a virtual camp and not a camp at Stanford was delayed beyond our regular schedule. Consequently, we've had to hustle a bit to get nominations from the teachers, applications from the girls and plan the interviews. As I mentioned in the article on Tech Trek, the response from the nominated girls has been less than we hoped for – I think there is definitely some "Zoom fatigue" and many girls are ready to move on to in-person activities. On the other hand, I have also heard that some of the residential camps are struggling as well, with some girls reluctant to be on campus and in the dorms, and recruitment of dorm moms has been a challenge. We are all ready to return to our pre-pandemic experience!

All eyes on the hearings for Judge Ketanji Jackson's confirmation to the Supreme Court! AAUW is a strong supporter of her selection as the first Black woman to the court. She is an exceptionally qualified judge with immense legal experience and a distinguished career. The Supreme Court should reflect and represent the people of America that it serves. You can use the AAUW Two-Minute Activist to make your voice heard to support her confirmation.

March 15 was Equal Pay Day – the day that women must work into 2022 to finally reach the pay men received last year. On the average, women are paid 83 percent of what men make. But there is more to the story! Many women of color make even less.

- Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander Women's Equal Pay Day is May 3. Asian American and Pacific Islander women are paid 75 cents for every dollar paid to white men.
- Black Women's Equal Pay Day is September 21. Black women are paid 58 cents for every dollar paid to white men.
- Native American Women's Equal Pay Day is November 30. These women are paid 50 cents for every dollar paid to white men.
- Latina's Equal Pay Day is December 8. Latinas are paid 49 cents for every dollar paid to white men.

You can help by encouraging your Senators to pass the bipartisan Paycheck Fairness Act, which passed the U.S. House of Representatives in 2021. The Senate needs to pass this bill and send it to President Biden to sign. This will ensure that all women have the tools they need to challenge discrimination and employers have the incentives they need to comply with the law.

Jan Cushman, President

BOARD MEETING
March 8, 2022

Our present Distinguished Woman 2021 (and President) Jan Cushman announced the decision has been made with many letters of recommendations from OML members. "Who? Who?" The Distinguished Woman will be announced at our meeting March 15.

There is high interest in our March speaker from Republic Services. There are many choices to make and we were assured Mr. Taylor will be able to help us.

Our April awards program, Sunday afternoon, April 24 will illustrate the AAUW mission statement of educating young women and girls. Come and meet them. The May Luncheon will take place on our regular third Tuesday – May 17 at a new venue – Holy Shepherd Lutheran Church, 433 Moraga Way, Orinda. We are excited with our new luncheon location where we will honor our Distinguished Woman and install a new board.

The STEM Conference on Saturday, March 19 at Saint Mary's College will host over one hundred 6th, 7th, and 8th grade girls who will be challenged in workshops lead by experts in their field. A crew of high school and college Ambassadors lead the daylong conference.

Our priorities are in full action. Burckhalter is offering in-school library classes where Oakland youngsters will explore and develop interests in the world around them. Both Tech Trek and Scholarship are very busy interviewing Lamorinda middle school and high school girls. These young women are our future. You will meet them at our April meeting, Sunday, April 24.

Membership Directories will be distributed at the March 15th meeting.

Maryellen Judson, Secretary

FOCUS ON ... OUR 2022 DISTINGUISHED WOMAN

Stacia Cragholm

At the March meeting, Stacia Cragholm was crowned (literally) the new OML Branch Distinguished Woman of the year. What a great way to surprise her!

Stacia has been the initial catalyst, inspiration and leader for the STEM Conference at Saint Mary's College. This program has impacted a total of over 700 middle school girls attending the conference as well as many former Tech Trek and Sister-to-Sister high school girls who have helped plan organize and volunteer the day of the conference, growing their leadership and confidence when considering a STEM career.

Our 2022 Distinguished Woman is committed to mentoring young women, especially the high school girls. She was an educator for many years. When she became a branch member, she joined the Tech Trek committee and helped interview and select 7th grade girls for Tech Trek camp at Stanford. When AAUW announced that there would be financial support for Tech Savvy STEM conferences for middle school girls, she spearheaded a proposal requesting a grant, which was not successful.

Her vision was to create a conference to engage many more girls with a one-day STEM conference than we could support for Tech Trek, despite this setback. She met Kirsten Beck, a math teacher at Saint Mary's College who had a similar interest. She and Kirsten secured a commitment from Saint Mary's College for an in-kind donation for the cost of the facilities and engaged with Expanding Your Horizons (EYH) for their registration system and a grant from Chevron. She also secured funding from the community, including EYH, Chevron, the Sunrise Rotary, and received many donations. She and her committee worked with community organizations to invite middle school girls in underserved areas.

Her commitment has attracted many branch members to work on the conference – a very sizable effort with many planning meetings, lining up workshop leaders and key note speakers and arranging assistance on the day of the conference. Stacia has been nominated every year since 2017. It is about time that we honor Stacia Cragholm as our 2022 Distinguished Woman! Congratulations!

Jan Cushman, Distinguished Woman, 2020-21

IMPORTANT MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

It is that time of year for membership renewal. Where has the time flown!

Did you know that AAUW has been transforming women's lives for more than a century. And now that we've won the fight to give women equal access to education, we're taking on one of the most defining issues of our time: gender equity. But we can't do it alone.

Your AAUW membership will help close the gender pay gap by 2030, ensure schools and workplaces are free of discrimination and harassment, and create more opportunities for women to lead. And did you know that you are part of a powerful network of more than 170,000 women and men across the country who are as passionate as you are about building a fairer future. You directly fund our work to:

- Train millions of women to negotiate for higher salaries and benefits,
- Support federal, state and local legislation, such as fair-pay, a women's right to choose, and much more,
- Develop more women leaders through workshops and conferences, and
- Fund the research that is informing national conversations on the gender pay gap, women's student-debt burden, and other key equity issues.

With the dangers of the pandemic waning, we are back to holding our events in person! Many interest groups are meeting in person. Look for membership renewal forms electronically and in the mail during May. Dues are $111 (Natl. $67, State $20, Branch $24; $63 tax deductible), a $5 increase due to an increase in National dues. This increase is needed because of inflation and rising expenses.

Thank you for your past membership and support. We look forward to working with you in 2022-23 to further AAUW's efforts for gender equity.

Marie Bonilla, VP, Membership

STEM CONFERENCE WRAP-UP

The 2022 STEM Conference for middle school girls at Saint Mary's College is in the history books. We hosted 122 girls who each experienced three STEM workshops. It was amazing to witness the change in the girls from the beginning of the conference, from quiet and tentative to animated and excited as they returned from their third workshop in the afternoon. The Ambassadors, a group of 10 high school girls, led all of the activities of the day. They also managed the Junior Monitors, a group of 20 mostly younger high school girls, who were workshop monitors responsible for escorting the girls to and from their workshops and helping in the workshops. They all did an excellent job. As did our Senior Workshop Managers, mostly OML members who volunteered in a workshop for the full day.

The keynote speaker was Joyce Leveque, Director of Quality Operations in the Biologics Development Department for Bayer Healthcare at their Berkeley campus. She talked about her education and career path and how one gets a start at a company like Bayer. She also discussed many careers that one can have with a biology or biotechnology degree, which are the degrees she received from UC Davis.

The workshops were interesting and engaging. They loved the Get to Know Your Brain workshop, during which the girls learned about the basic brain structures and functions. They dissected a sheep brain and compared it to the human brain anatomy. The FBI-CSI workshop is always the most popular. The girls learn how to investigate a crime scene. In the reviews the girls stated they loved learning about how to lift fingerprints from a variety of objects. In the workshop Exploring the Microscopic World, the girls use different types of microscopes to examine living and fixed samples, tissue specimens, and inanimate objects. Another popular workshop was Examining Food Science from the Inside Out. While they learn about nutrition, they also experiment with foods to see and feel the difference in types of fiber, how the same molecules can smell different in similar foods, and they extract minerals with magnets.

Some of the other workshops were Green Plants Make Rubber Gloves, Learn about Architecture with LEGOS, Seeing and Touching DNA (which takes DNA from fruits and vegetables to see what it looks and feels like), and several other workshops, all of which had great reviews from the girls. Not only do they learn in a hands-on way, they learn about careers in many STEM fields, and get to meet and talk to women in these fields.

The Parent Program, planned and led by Laura Wittenberg, had a great keynote speaker as well, Nina Horne, BS, MPP, founder and CEO of Samara, a company focused on helping parents and teens build happy, loving families and lives of compassion and meaning. The title of the parent conference was Learning to Parent for the Second Decade: new tools and skills to effectively parent your tweens and teens. They had a student panelist made up of two of our Ambassadors and two Saint Mary's College students who shared their challenges and choices made, successes and failures, what they learned and words of wisdom for parents. We are so lucky to have Isabelle Katz and Liesel Hilkemeyer as two of our Ambassadors, who are always willing to help OML any time they are asked. School of Science Dean, Dr. Roy Wensley closed the session and then took some of the parents on a tour of campus.

Engineers, Structures & Earthquakes workshop

Our goal is to capture the interest of these middle school girls so they continue to take STEM-related classes in high school and choose a STEM career. It takes a lot of volunteers to put on this conference. The Ambassadors (10 pictured below with Stacia), Junior Monitors (22), Lamorinda Sunrise Rotary (12), AAUW-OML members (38), presenters (about 40 with helpers). We can't thank our volunteers enough for the work done prior to the conference, and then helping again on the day of the conference, many of whom were there all day. And a special thank you to the STEM Committee – Stacia Cragholm, Heidi Mayer, Laura Wittenberg, Peggy Cabaniss, Chris Lasczc-Davis, Laura Monin; as well as Sharon Doi and Marie Bonilla who helped a lot during the last two weeks prior to the conference. You are all awesome!!!

Denise Burian, Chair, DEI Committee

HOW TO DEAL WITH OUR WASTE March 15 Meeting Take-away

Some things that seemed so obvious to us, apparently were not obvious at all!

On March 15 we were given the good news and the bad news about our recycling habits. John Taylor, a representative of Re-public Services (pictured below with Barbara Bell) spoke to us about the many changes in the recycling program.

Green Cart:

- All Organics • Food waste • Yard trimmings • Uncoated food • Soiled paper • Napkins • Paper towels • Uncoated food cartons

No compostable plastics: They do not break down completely in the compost process.

Blue Cart: Clean items only

- Newspapers in the Blue Cart? Usually, if dry, but if they have been wrapped with food they go in the Green Cart.
- Bundled plastic bags? Blue Cart – but they don't really want plastic bags, so if possible return them to your local supermarket.
- Shredded Paper? Place in a clear plastic bag in the Blue Cart
- Milk Cartons? No, place them in the Black Cart.
- Clean Aluminum Foil
- Glass Bottles and Jars
- Cardboard
- No receipts – place them in the Black Cart

Black Cart, Just about everything else!

However ...

- No electronics
- No fluorescent bulbs
- No yard trimmings
- No Sharps
- No Hazardous Waste

Paint and Hazardous waste should go out to Central Sanitation's Household Hazardous Waste facility.

BURCKHALTER UPDATE

After two years students can go again to the library and check out books. When students come into the library, they are so glad to see us, as well as the new library and all the new books.

We are looking for a few volunteers to substitute occasionally for our regular volunteers who need to be away for family trips or appointments. No library experience is necessary. Join us for a fun and rewarding time. Contact Janette Maher if you can help out, kidlitivr@hotmail.com.

Janette Maher, Burckhalter Coordinator

A WORD FROM ONE of OUR ADVERTISERS

Directory advertiser Meadow View Winery has exciting news. You may remember from our December 2019 Triad, Meadow View's Bill English is the Orinda winemaker who focuses on making good wines from grapes grown in Lamorinda. He was part of the LWGA group that put our area on the viticulture map. If you attended OML's December Holiday Party at the Moraga Art Gallery, Bill was one of the wine pourers at the event, along with Dave Parker, another Lamorinda wine producer.

Save The Date: The Lamorinda Wine Growers Association will present a tasting of local wines on Sunday, May 1, from noon to 6:00 PM, to celebrate the 5th anniversary of Lamorinda as a federally recognized AVA. (American Viticulture Area) Several Lamorinda wineries will be pouring. The event will be held in the lot behind Wine Thieves, in Lafayette.

Lamorinda Tasting Room: Added exciting news is that work has begun on a community wine tasting room in Lafayette! It will be called Local Vines and is going into the building formerly occupied by Napa Auto Parts. Local Vines will highlight Lamorinda wines and also pour select wines from East Contra Costa County – truly local wines. It is expected to open by the end of 2022. Local Vines will also have a cellar where wine will be made. MV's Bill English will be the head winemaker, however, more than one brand will be made there.

You can purchase all of Meadow View's fine wines at Jackson's in Lafayette and BevMo in Orinda and Lafayette. Look for their Cabernet Franc at Diablo Foods and Super-T at Tutu's. Casa Orinda pours the Chardonnay and Super-T, both made with grapes from Mary Leigh Miller's vineyard.

Visit MeadowViewWinery.net to be added to their newsletter mailing list and get updates about Local Vines and news about local wine tasting events. As a mailing list member, you may buy direct and get a discount. Order wine by emailing Bill@MeadowViewWinery.net. Enjoy!
